Case No. 2:17-cv-04396-JFW-JC

PLAINTIFF UPTIME ENERGY INC.'S PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ORDER

The Hon. John F. Walter

1 Pursuant to the Court's November 16, 2017 Order, Plaintiff Uptime Energy Inc. hereby 2 submits this [Proposed] Preliminary Injunction Order.

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

4 (1) Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction is denied in part and granted in part.
5 The Court denies Plaintiff's motion to enjoin Defendants from using UP as a trademark for an 6 energy drink for the reasons set forth in the Court's Order of November 16, 2017 and grants the 7 motion with respect to the UPTIME Trade Dress and any trade dress that is confusingly similar to 8 the UPTIME Trade Dress. The Court orders Plaintiff to submit a bond of $50,000 within two 9 days of entry of this Order

10 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

11 (2) Until the conclusion of a trial in this litigation or further order of the Court,
12 Defendants, their partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, and representatives, and all 13 persons, firms and corporations in active concert or participation with any of them, are 14 immediately enjoined from using in any manner the UPTIME Trade Dress, defined as (1) a black 15 or white background with minimal text; (2) a centered logo with an upward pointing arrow; (3) a 16 screw top; and (4) a round bottle with a "shoulder" that is relatively high with a very slight curve
17 to meet the neck, or any trade dress that is confusingly similar to the UPTIME Trade Dress, 18 including, but not limited to:

- 19 (a) The white bottle that Defendants used for their UP energy drinks starting in or 20 about May 2017;
- 21 (b) The UP trademark with any predominantly white or black bottle;
- 22 (c) Any advertisements or other promotional materials featuring any trade dress that is 23 confusingly similar to the UPTIME Trade Dress, such as the bottles specifically 24 identified in points (2)(a) and (b) above, including but not limited to displays on 25 websites and posts on mobile applications or social media; and
- 26 (d) Any YouTube or other online videos featuring any trade dress that is confusingly 27 similar to the UPTIME Trade Dress, such as the bottles specifically identified in 28 points (2)(a) and (b) above.

1 (3) Until the conclusion of a trial in this litigation or further order of the Court,
2 Defendants, their partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, and representatives, and all
3 persons, firms and corporations in active concert or participation with any of them are further 4 ordered to immediately remove or delete from any website or social media account that any of 5 them control, including postings on third-party mobile applications such as Instagram, all 6 postings that include a photograph, drawing, or other depiction of the white bottle that Defendants
7 used for their UP energy drinks starting in or about May 2017 or bottle that is confusingly similar 8 to the UPTIME Trade Dress, such as the bottles specifically identified in points (2)(a) and (b) 9 above.

10 (4) Until the conclusion of a trial in this litigation or further order of the Court,
11 Defendants, their partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, and representatives, and all
12 persons, firms and corporations in active concert or participation with any of them are further 13 ordered to immediately remove any YouTube or other online videos that any of them posted that 14 include a photograph, drawing, or other depiction of the white bottle that Defendants used for 15 their UP energy drinks starting in or about May 2017 or bottle that is confusingly similar to the 16 UPTIME Trade Dress, such as the bottles specifically identified in points (2)(a) and (b) above.

17 (5) Defendants are directed to file with this Court and serve upon Plaintiff within 18 thirty (30) days after entry of this Order a single report in writing under oath setting forth in detail
19 the manner and form in which Defendants have complied with the injunction, as set forth above.
20

21 IT IS SO ORDERED.
